*These taller and heavier gauge
Crooks, are great for supporting swags of bunting or rope in the garden.*

*Try trailing stems
of rambling rose
along swags of
braided rope in the border, extending the spread of a
climber along a
boundary fence and draw out the floral splash.*

Plant Crooks photographed at RHS Rosemoor, Devon

A genius 'no-string' design, previously spotted by Rachel de Thame as her "favourite find" at Gardeners World Live, when on display in the Angie Turner Silver Medal award winning 'Peek-a-boo' show garden.

Simply push in a Plant Crook and flex a stem into the scroll, ta-da.

Made of solid steel wire with a natural rust finish.
Plant Crooks sold in packs of 4, Swag Crooks sold in packs of 5.
